

Joint Proceedings of the Workshops and Doctoral Consortium at ICCBR 2025

We are pleased to present the joint workshop proceedings of the 33rd International Conference on Case-Based Reasoning (ICCBR 2025) held from June 29 - July 3 2025, in Biarritz, France. The proceedings include the contributions of the following workshops and the doctoral consortium:

- 2nd Workshop on Case-Based Reasoning and Large Language Model Synergies (CBR-LLM) Workshop chairs: David Leake, Lukas Malburg, Ian Watson, Rosina Weber, Nirmalie Wiratunga. pp. 1 - 52;
- 3rd Workshop on Beyond Attribute-Value Case Representation (BEAR) Workshop chairs: Alexander Schultheis, Lisa Grumbach, Pascal Reuss, Manuel Striani, Maximilian Hoffmann, Christian Zeyen, Lukas Malburg. pp. 53 - 66;
- ICCBR Doctoral Consortium 2025 Chairs: David Leake, Mirjam Minor. pp. 67 - 115;

The ICCBR 2025 Organisation Committee would like to extend its gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of this year's workshop programme, including the workshop organisers, reviewers, and authors of presented papers. These workshops are a key venue for emerging research in CBR and related disciplines. In supporting such activities, we are together supporting the ongoing development of CBR research by encouraging the dissemination of fresh ideas and viewpoints throughout the CBR community. We hope that all participants enjoyed this years workshop programme and find these proceedings a valuable resource for advancing their research. Finally, to the future reader, we hope that this volume serves as a snapshot of initial explorations and burgeoning ideas in CBR research.
